23.2 Without prejudice to any of its rights or remedies, SEG Awards may terminate the Centre Agreement immediately on written notice if the Centre:

23.2.1 does not comply with SEG Awards Policies and Procedures including those under the Sanctions Policy resulting in the withdrawal of Approval;

23.2.2 is in material or persistent breach of any term of the Centre Agreement, and if the breach is capable of remedy has failed to remedy it within the period stipulated by SEG Awards;

23.2.3 SEG Awards reasonably believes that the Centre's conduct is prejudicial to SEG Awards' interests (including, but not limited to, in the case of the Centre's breach of any security requirements, malpractice or maladministration in the delivery and assessment of Qualifications), or is not consistent with its brand values, guidelines and/or reputation, or may bring members or organisations within academia, education or the arts into disrepute;

23.2.4 the Centre undergoes a Change of Control and such change may, in the reasonable opinion of SEG Awards, affect the Centre's ability to comply with its obligations under the Centre Agreement, is inconsistent with SEG Awards' values and/or reputation, and/or creates, or is likely to create, a conflict of interest;

23.2.5 ceases or threatens to cease to trade; or becomes bankrupt; or goes into liquidation; or has a receiver or manager appointed over its business or any of the property or assets of the business;

23.2.6 is unable to offer and/or deliver the Qualifications as a result of a change in laws, or as a result of loss of a licence or permit necessary to deliver the Qualifications; or

23.2.7 is subject to a sanction placed on it by another Awarding Organisation, resulting in the withdrawal of its recognition with that Awarding Organisation.

23.3 Without prejudice to any of its rights or remedies, SEG Awards may terminate the Centre Agreement immediately on written notice if SEG Awards loses its status as an Awarding Organisation/Body in respect of all Qualifications.

23.4 SEG Awards reserves the right to suspend or restrict the Approval with immediate effect during the period given to the Centre to remedy a breach under clause 23.3 and/or while it is investigating the Centre's conduct under any of the provisions of the Centre Agreement.

23.5 SEG Awards reserves the right to terminate this agreement without notice where the Centre has retained the status of 'inactive' for a period of two years.

24 Consequences of suspension or termination

24.1 The Centre shall take all reasonable steps (at its own cost) to act in the Learners' legitimate best interests in the event of suspension or expiry of Approval and/or during any investigation conducted by SEG Awards, or in the event of termination of the Centre Agreement pursuant to clause 23, including, but not limited to, such co-operation as may be required to effect the transfer of Learners to another Recognised Centre.

24.2 Upon termination of the Centre Agreement (howsoever caused) or suspension, withdrawal or expiry of the Approval:

24.2.1 all outstanding sums payable under the Centre Agreement shall immediately become due and payable;

24.2.2 the Centre shall immediately cease to advertise any of the Qualifications; and

24.2.3 the Centre shall immediately cease to use the SEG Awards Recognised Centre Logo in connection with promotion of any Qualifications or other business activities.

24.3 Immediately upon termination of the Centre Agreement (or suspension, withdrawal or expiry of the Approval), the Centre will, at SEG Awards' reasonable request, fulfil those specified obligations to SEG Awards and/or the Learners which remain unfinished as at the date of termination, expiry or suspension, and upon completion of such obligations:

24.4 cease to use any of SEG Awards' property, the SEG Awards Intellectual Property and all of the materials produced by or on behalf of the Centre using such SEG Awards Intellectual Property (and destroy or return any of these at SEG Awards' request) and do such things and execute and deliver all further documents as may be necessary to vest all rights, title and interest to SEG Awards under the Centre Agreement;

24.5 cease to deliver the Qualifications; and cease to use any SEG Awards IT/Digital systems (if applicable).

24.6 On termination of the Centre Agreement for any reason, the Approval will cease, however, each Party's accrued rights and liabilities as at the date of termination, clause 9 (Security), clause 12 (Withdrawal), clause 17 (Intellectual Property), clause 20 (Retention of records), clause 18 (Database of Learners), clause 19 (Confidentiality), clause 21 (Fees and payments), clause 22 (Limitation of liability and indemnity), clause 24 (Consequences of suspension or termination), and clause 26.12 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction) will survive and continue in full force and effect.

25 Subcontracting and appointing agents

25.1 The Centre may not assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract, or otherwise dispose of or delegate (including, but not limited to, appointing an agent) any of its rights, benefits or obligations arising out of the Centre Agreement to any other third party without SEG Awards' prior written consent.

25.2 Where SEG Awards has given written consent under clause 25.1, the Centre will be responsible for ensuring that the third party has appropriate capacity and capability to ensure the provision of the services under the Centre Agreement at all times and will agree in writing to any requirements SEG Awards may have in providing its consent under clause 25.1. The Centre shall remain liable at all times to SEG Awards for the acts, errors or omissions of any such third party.

25.3 The Centre shall ensure that any such third party appointed by the Centre under this clause 25 to provide any services:

25.4 complies with all aspects of the Centre Agreement and it is subject to legally binding terms not less onerous than the terms of the Centre Agreement; and

25.6 clearly discloses its status and relationship with the Centre in any communication with Learners and/or other Users in connection with Qualifications.

25.7 For the avoidance of doubt, where SEG Awards has given written consent under clause 25.1, such consent does not extend to the right of the Centre to sub-license any of its rights in respect of SEG Awards Intellectual Property (including in respect of the SEG Awards Recognised Centre Logo). Any use of SEG Awards Recognised Centre Logo and/or other SEG Awards Intellectual Property, and any other activity that could reasonably associate such third party with SEG Awards is not allowed.

25.8 SEG Awards may at any time assign, mortgage, charge, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights under the Centre Agreement.

26 General

26.1 At its own expense, each Party shall, and shall use all reasonable endeavours to procure that any necessary third party shall, promptly execute and deliver such documents and perform such acts as may be reasonably required for the purpose of giving full effect to the Centre Agreement.

26.2 SEG Awards may from time to time amend or vary the terms of this Agreement upon written notice to the Centre, when such amendment or variation becomes necessary or desirable to comply with the Regulatory Requirements or for reasons related to SEG Awards' business. Any variation or amendment of this Agreement shall take effect from the date specified in the notice of variation or amendment.

26.3 For the avoidance of doubt, SEG Awards may at any time amend or vary any or all of the SEG Awards Policies and Procedures by publishing the amended or varied version(s) on the Website or otherwise making it available to the Centre. Any such variation or amendment takes effect from the date of such publication or notification.

26.4 The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any term, part-term or any right arising pursuant to the Centre Agreement will not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of its remaining terms. If any term or part-term is found unenforceable or invalid, insofar and to the extent permissible by law, the Parties will negotiate in good faith to amend such term such that, as amended, it is legal, valid and enforceable, and, to the greatest extent possible, it achieves the Parties' original commercial intention. If such modification is not possible, the relevant term or part-term shall be deemed deleted.

26.5 Neither Party will be in breach of the Centre Agreement nor liable for a delay or failure in performance resulting from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. In such circumstances the affected Party will be entitled to a reasonable extension of the time allocated for performing its obligations. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for thirty (30) days from the date of occurrence, the Party not affected may terminate the Centre Agreement by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to the other Party.

- 26.6 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that SEG Awards may have, the Centre acknowledges and agrees that damages alone may not be an adequate remedy for breach of the terms of the Centre Agreement and that SEG Awards shall be entitled to the remedies of injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief for any threatened or actual breach by the Centre of any of the terms of the Centre Agreement.
- 26.7 Any notice under or in connection with the Centre Agreement must be in writing and correctly addressed. Notices/communications may be given by either Party by pre-paid first-class post or other next Business Day delivery service (to the main business address for both Parties) or by email, in the case of the Centre to the authorised person whose email address is stated in the Application for Centre Recognition (or otherwise notified to SEG Awards), and in the case of SEG Awards, to that of the SEG Awards representative whose email address will be specified in any Approval confirmation notice. A notice will be deemed received three (3) days after posting if sent by first-class post or other next Business Day delivery service and at 5pm on the day of sending if sent by email, provided that any notice received on a weekend or public holiday or after 5 pm (local time at the place of receipt) will be deemed to be received on the next Business Day. This clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or any documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any other method of dispute resolution.
- 26.8 A person who is not a Party to the Centre Agreement has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce or enjoy the benefit of any of the terms and conditions in the Centre Agreement.
- 26.9 Nothing in the Centre Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the Parties, constitute any Party the agent of another Party, or authorise any Party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other Party. Each Party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.
- 26.10A waiver of any right or remedy under the Centre Agreement or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. A failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Centre Agreement or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under the Centre

Agreement or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

26.11 The Centre Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all previous agreements, arrangements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. Each Party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Centre Agreement. Each Party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation based on any statement in the Centre Agreement and each Party acknowledges that, in entering into the Centre Agreement, it has not relied on any representation or warranty.

26.12 Each Party agrees that the Centre Agreement and the relationship between the Centre and SEG Awards will be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales and that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Centre Agreement or its subject matter or formation.

This Agreement has been entered into on the date signed below by the Centre Representative.
