

Level 3 Youth Support Worker End-Point Assessment

Our experience with the standards for these industries means we know exactly what employers and apprentices need. We make the assessment process clear, easy to use and responsive, ensuring that employers and apprentices are fully supported throughout.

About the End-point assessment

This occupation is found in informal settings such as youth clubs, activity-based projects and social action projects; or more formal settings such as schools, Early Help or youth offending and in local authority, charity, private or voluntary organisations. Youth support workers may work in more specialist settings such as schools, alternative education provisions, hospitals, youth justice environments or within the social care system. Work in a supporting role with young people aged 11-25 to promote their personal, social and educational development.

Fee £800
