

Skills & Education Group Awards

Level 5 Early Years Lead Practitioner End-Point Assessment

As part of Skills and Education Group Awards, we are expanding our offer into the Education and Early Years sector. We make the assessment process clear, easy to use and responsive, ensuring that employers and apprentices are fully supported throughout.

About the End-Point assessment

This occupation is found in a range of settings which can include day nurseries, playgroups, nursery schools, pre-schools, kindergartens, primary schools, hospitals, social care settings, out of school environments and local authority provision. The broad purpose of the occupation is to be a proactive and influential practitioner, working directly with children, skilfully leading day to day practice at an operational level. As active practitioners they are effective role models of play based learning, supporting others to develop their own practice. They are highly skilled professionals who take an operational lead for the care, learning and development of all young children within their care, adapting to individual needs providing inclusive and holistic provision. They engage with sector developments both locally and nationally, with a commitment to developing their own professional and educational competencies.
