Overview

The SEG Awards Level 2 Award in Feline Care, Welfare and Behaviour has been designed to develop knowledge and skills for those looking to work with felines.

Who is this qualification for?

The SEG Awards Level 2 Award in Feline Care, Welfare and Behaviour is designed for learners over the age of 16, who have a passion for felines and feline care. This qualification is particularly suited for Learners who are seeking to start their career or study within this field.

What does the qualification cover?

The SEG Awards Level 2 Award in Feline Care, Welfare and Behaviour has been designed to provide learners with the knowledge on the wellbeing, care requirements and behaviour of felines. Learners will gain an understanding on how felines operate and behave giving them the knowledge and basic tools to progress on to working and generally caring for felines of any age and breed.

The qualification covers:

- Introduction to Feline Behaviour and Welfare - Within this unit, Learners will be introduced to feline behavioural patterns and signs becoming confident in recognising what is normal and abnormal behaviour in a feline. Learners will also gain an understanding on how to appropriately care for felines, including First Aid techniques, treatments and illnesses relating to a feline's health.

This unit is a knowledge-based unit, with no physical requirements.

- Caring for Felines - This unit will provide Learners with an introduction on how to provide basic care for felines. Learners will understand how to carry out routine health checks, common feline health issues and nutrition requirements. Exploring more into age requirements, Learners will be aware of specific health and wellbeing needs depending on different life stages and conditions of a feline.

This unit is a knowledge-based unit, with no physical requirements.
