Overview

The SEG Awards Entry Level Award in ESOL Skills for Life in Writing (Entry 2) is designed to help learners improve their foundational English writing skills necessary for daily life, work, and further education. It provides a structured approach to learning, focusing on practical and relevant content to help learners integrate more easily into English-speaking environments.

Objectives

1. Develop Basic Writing Skills:

- Writing simple sentences and short texts.
- Using basic punctuation and capitalisation.
- Spelling common words correctly.

2. Improve Sentence Structure:

- Constructing grammatically correct sentences.
- Using a variety of sentence types (statements, questions, commands).
- Linking sentences to form coherent paragraphs.

3. Increase Vocabulary and Grammar:

- Learning and using common vocabulary in writing.
- Applying basic grammar rules (subject-verb agreement, verb tenses).
- Using appropriate word order in sentences.

Who is this qualification for?
